

SOHAR INTERNATIONAL UREA & CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES LLC

QHSE POLICY

Sohar International Urea & Chemical Industries LLC (SIUCI) is committed to achieving high standards in quality, health, safety and environmental (QHSE) performance in all its activities relating to “Manufacturing and Ship Loading of Granular Urea” and to:

- Comply with applicable mandatory requirements;
- Develop and implement systems and procedures intended to protect the environment and promote health and safety of the persons working within SIUCI’s premises;
- Carry out QHSE risk assessments, eliminate / mitigate identified hazards and risks by employing appropriate and safe work procedures, implementing relevant control measures and being prepared for emergencies;
- Set clear QHSE objectives, and targets and conduct periodic review and audit;
- Effectively communicate the QHSE Policy to all relevant persons;
- Provide QHSE training to our employees and other relevant personnel;
- Strive to continually improve our QHSE performance through consultation and participation of employees in various QHSE programmes, learning, benchmarking and undertaking appropriate improvement programs;
- Deliver quality products.